Success Group

creates unprecedented outcomes for organizations and individuals. Her seminal work in inspired leadership delivers game changing outcomes. A thought leader in strategic speed, innovation and executive performance, Lorraine is sought out to contribute to the transformation of companies and individuals. At TD Bank, 19th largest bank in the world, Lorraine was a member of the executive team who led the largest financial services merger in North American history. While at TransCanada, she was an integral contributor on the small team who led the successful first phase of Keystone pipeline. Lorraine speaks to audiences across North America on a wide range of topics. Among her original work, her insights are incorporated in approaches that include Six Hour Strategy© and Leadership Athleticism which have struck a major chord in executive performance across North America. Inducted into the Million Dollar Consultant Hall of Fame® her global client base includes small, mid-sized and large organizations such as Enbridge, BHP, Telus, KPMG, Brion, TransCanada, Garner Corporation and others. Lorraine chairs two MacKay CEO Forums with participants from more than 25 national organizations.

Some of her published articles have appeared in American Business, Advantage, Oil and Gas Monitor and Pharmaceutical Compliance Monitor and others. Lorraine's expertise is regularly sought by NY firms such as Coleman Research Group, Stern and Associates and Mosaic where she shares her expertise through webinars, debates and/or directly to global clients.

An active board director for over 25 years, Lorraine contributes broadly to her community. Lorraine holds a BA from Western University and a MBA from Athabasca University. She is married to the man she fell for at age 18 and loves spending time with her children, stepchildren and grandchildren. She and her husband are avid and adventurous travelers. Together they hiked Kilimanjaro and Machu Picchu, toured Kenya, Turkey, China, India, Thailand, Singapore, Bali, Malaysia and more. Frequent attendance at Burning Man is just one of the ways Lorraine satisfies her love of art, music, theatre and diverse cultural experiences.
